

08 JUL, 2023

Confiscated items on display at RMCD Museum

Sin Chew Daily (Melaka), Malaysia

Page 2 of 2

SUMMARIES

改装运裁锡 米私运出国的电单车，已成了半世纪古董。制作椰花酒的各类工具年代久远，如今已经生锈。各类生产米酒或三苏酒的大型厨具，60年代在巴生港口遭充公。報道、攝影•范純璋(马六甲7 日讯) 坐落在怡力海乾街的大马皇家关税局博物馆，展出了林林总总的被充公物品，带给访客一份知性的惊喜，除了认识了当局扮演的执法角色，也了解到被禁物品的种类和原因。由于展出的充公物品被关税局充公至今，已有数十年

Located on Jalan Merdeka, Banda Hilir, Melaka, the Royal Malaysian Customs Department (RMCD) Museum offers visitors an intellectual surprise with its collection of confiscated items. In addition to being aware of the enforcement role played by the authorities, you also learn about the types of prohibited items and the reasons. The museum also has displays of various illegal cigarettes, cigars and manufactured tobacco products, some brands of which have been discontinued.